YOU HIRED THE PEOPLE

You still get the call for Every little thing.

WHY

Nobody told the team Which problems can wait.

So the jammed printer, the late delivery and the customer asking for "the owner" all ring one phone. Yours.

HOW BANKS HANDLE IT

Every problem gets a severity first.

The support team rates it on one thing: business impact. The severity decides who fixes it and how fast.

WHAT THAT GIVES THEM

1 The business keeps running

2 No undue escalations

3 Nobody drops everything for one problem

YOUR VERSION

Not Everything Is An Emergency.

1

Call me now

Customers can't be served, or someone could get hurt.

2

Fix it today, tell me after

One job or customer affected. There's a workaround.

3

Log it for Monday

Annoying, but nothing stops.

SET IT UP THIS WEEK

1 Write one line per level

2 Add examples from your week

3 Pin it up for the team

THE TAKEAWAY

Business impact decides who gets called. Not whoever panics first.
